

You are hiring a new employee, an employee is changing jobs, or received some change to their job duties which now require Internet Native Banner access. This individual is considered permanent and is either full time or part time. The process to request ITS Special Access for these categories are the same.

